Rosa Montano
Office of Congresswoman Martha McSally

Rosa -

I called your office this morning and you were in a meeting and not available to take my call. My EPA HQ colleague, Nicole Distefano, forwarded on the inquiry from your constituent, Mr. John Strobeck, about a piece of property he is in the process of selling. I wanted to see if you were available to participate in a brief teleconference call with myself and a colleague from our Brownfields Program, Jose Garcia. We would both be available for a call today at 1:30pm PT & Tucson time.

I am working outside the office today and can be reached today at 415.760.9170 if you have any questions before our proposed call.

If this suggested time works, I have set up the following conference line for this discussion. Please confirm whether you are available at this proposed time.

Dial-In Number: (866) 299-3188

Conference Code: Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy

Leader PIN: Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy (for use only by Brent Maier to initiate the call)

Regards,

Brent Maier

Dear Congressional Liaison,

Our constituent, Mr. John Strobeck, contacted our office in reference to his property located at 3700 E. 38th Street, Tucson, AZ. Mr. Strobeck expressed concern about the requirements of a Phase One inspection, which would cause a financial impact on him. I have attached Mr. Strobeck's statement for your review. Any assistance you can provide would be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,
